Issue
- Councillor Reports is a standing item on the agenda.

Background
- Council's procedural bylaws states that Members Reports will be included on the agenda (as directed by Council), and reports may be either in writing, or verbally, or both.

Strategic Alignment
- The procedural bylaws states that the purpose of Member Reports is to provide each member with the opportunity to bring forward any matter of general interest to the Council or the County as a whole.

Follow-up
- To accept the Councillor reports as information.
